Strategy for the 21st Century

Enable Your Leaders and Managers with Strategic Planning and Execution Skills

Prometheus Academy

September 25th – 29th 2017 Montgomery, Alabama

The Prometheus Academy provides hands-on Prometheus Process learning opportunities with leaders and managers from many different business disciplines.

An intensive five-day program to learn and practice a unique start-to finish strategy methodology.

Program Outline

Strategic success requires a strategic methodology. Venturist, Inc. developed and uses the Prometheus Process--a high energy, high probability of success methodology to create and execute winning strategies. The Prometheus Academy provides an opportunity to learn this process hands-on with leaders and managers from many different business disciplines. The program consists of lectures and discussions on each part of the Prometheus Process followed by small group mentored breakout sessions that provide the opportunity to apply the lessons just learned to a business case study. By the end of the week, participants have a working understanding of theory and practice alike.

"A can't miss, must do- Had I done this 10-20 years ago I would be where I planned to be not just to where I arrived"

Shane Reeder, Campus Director, Stevens Henager College, Boise Campus

Who Should Attend

CEOs, executive and senior vice presidents, executive directors, directors, senior managers, division managers, business owners and other managers with strategic leadership, planning roles and requirements.
